

Guidelines for the Featured Artist of the Month

1. You must be a current Active or Participating member of more than one year prior to selection with dues paid up-to-date.
2. Active members MUST be current in completing their desk worker responsibility.
3. You must have hung in at least one show this year to date.
4. You cannot have been Featured Artist in the past two years.
5. Priority goes by date current membership was established, as much as possible.
6. If you have qualified steps 1-5, but were not chosen for current year, your name will be added to a list of substitute candidates, in the event one of the chosen candidates is unable to fulfill their obligation.
7. Feature artist are encouraged to hold a reception. They are responsible for refreshments, clean-up, and advertising. Talk with the Art Focus Editor on ways the gallery can assist you with advertising.
8. Featured Artist paintings hung on the Featured Artist wall during a juried show are not eligible for consideration. If a Featured Artist wishes to have a piece juried, the jury fee must be paid and submitted for display on the walls available for the general membership. (Only one piece may be submitted.)
9. All candidates must re-apply in September of the current year to be considered for the following year. All candidates who applied the previous September for the current year, who met the guidelines, but were not chosen, will be placed higher on the candidate list for consideration if they re-apply for the next year.
